To
The Station House Officer,
Venkatapuram PS,
Mulugu District.

Respected Sir,

I am working as Sub-Inspector of Police, PS Venkatapuram of Mulugu District. I submit that, the armed cadres of banned CPI (Maoist) planted IEDs in the forest areas of Karreguttalu hillocks under Venkatapuram, Wazeedu and Perur PSs limits of Mulugu district, Terlangana and Elmidu & Usur PSs limits of Bijapur district, Chhattisgarh to make the Karreguttalu hillocks inaccessible for security forces and to establish a strong Maoist base on Karreguttalu hillocks. The Maoists had given a statement recently that they had planted bombs in the area and warned Adivasis and others not to move in the area.

As large number of armed UG cadres of banned CPI (Maoist) taking shelter on Karreguttalu hillocks spread along the borders of Venkatapuram, Wazeedu and Perur PSs limits of Mulugu district and Elmidu & Usur PSs of Bijapur district, Chhattisgarh and made the Karreguttalu hillocks as the Maoist operational base, recently the Chhattisgarh Police launched a large scale search operations on Karreguttalu hillocks to nab the armed UG cadres of CPI (Maoist) wanted in many heinous offences and taking shelter on Karreguttalu hillocks.

Due to the ongoing search operations on Karreguttalu hillocks, certain armed cadres taking shelter on Karreguttalu hillocks are escaping from there to avoid legal action by security forces and went into different directions. The Mulugu district police were collecting information to nab all those Maoist cadres who are escaping from Karreguttalu hillocks and entering Mulugu district.

While making the efforts to nab such Maoist cadres, on 16.05.2025 received the information that a group of Maoist cadres escaped from Karreguttalu hillocks are taking shelter in the nugur forest near Rachapally village under the limits of PS Venkatapuram, Mulugu district.

During the checking, at around 14:30 hours I found six persons, including women, coming from the direction of Palem Project towards Rachapalli village. On seeing the police party they tried to escape from there under suspicious circumstances, on noticing it immediately I caught them at some distance with the assistance of my police party and took them into custody.

I questioned them and during which they all confessed that they are working in the armed formations of different committees of proscribed CPI (Maoist) and involved in heinous offences including killing of police personnel.
