HONORED SIR,

The Maoists had given a statement recently that they had planted bombs in the area and warned Adivasis and others not to move in the area. As large number of armed UG cadres of banned CPI (Maoist) taking shelter on Karreguttalu hillocks spread along the borders of Venkatapuram, Wazeedu and Perur PSs limits of Mulugu district and Elmidi & Usur PSs of Bijapur district, Chhattisgarh and made the Karreguttalu hillocks as the Maoist operational base, recently the Chhattisgarh Police launched a large scale search operations on Karreguttalu hillocks to nab the armed UG cadres of CPI (Maoist) wanted in many heinous offences and taking shelter on Karreguttalu hillocks. Due to the ongoing search operations on Karreguttalu hillocks, certain armed cadres taking shelter on Karreguttalu hillocks are escaping from there to avoid legal action by security forces and went into different directions. The Mulugu district police were collecting information to nab all those Maoist cadres who are escaping from Karreguttalu hillocks and entering Mulugu district, while making the efforts to nab such Maoist cadres, on 17.05.2025 received the information that a group of Maoist cadres escaped from Karreguttalu hillocks are taking shelter in the forest near Guttalaganaram Guthikoya habitation, in the limits of Kannaigudem PS, Mulugu district. Having received the above information, I along with Greyhounds units, district special party and BD team went to said area, between the Guttalaganaram Guthikoya habitation to Thupakulagudem village of Kannaigudem PS, Mulugu district. I found (07) persons including women taking shelter in the forest. I disclosed our identity as police and asked them to surrender. But the said persons tried to escape without yielding to my words. Then I surrounded them and took (04) male and (03) female cadres of CPI (Maoist) into custody.
