Further, the complainant secured the presence of mediators after a while including women mediators and questioned all the 07 persons individually and separately before mediators. On which, all they confessed that they are working in the armed formations of different committees of proscribed CPI (Maoist) and involved in heinous offences including killing of police personnel recently. Also, they confessed that they were working in the armed formations of different committees of banned CPI (Maoist), they involved in planting IEDs on Karreguttalu hillocks, participated in the ambush, triggered landmines and opened fire at the police search party on 08.05.2025 morning at Pedda gutta of Nugur forest area near Penugolu village of Wazeedu PS and killed three (03) Police personnel in the landmine blast followed by firing. After the above incident on the same day, they along with other armed Maoist cadres engaged in a gun battle with security forces in Lankapally forest, CG around 03-04 km distance from the first incident. While the gun battle was going on, they escaped from there, hid their firearms in the forest Gundla Vagu, near Murmur village. As there were large scale police combing operations in Chhattisgarh, they confessed that they wanted to enter Telangana to escape from the Chhattisgarh Police and to take shelter for a few weeks in the Guthikoya habitations in Telangana. Hence, they hid their entire arms along with ammunition and changed in to plain civil clothes to avoid the arrest by police. After completing the confession panchanama of the accused persons, seized following articles from their possession. Weapons: INSAS Rifles, SLRs, 0.303 and 8mm rifles, country-made grenade, live ammunition Communication Devices: Radios, walkie-talkies, man-packs Digital Storage: Memory cards, pen drives Documents: Maoist literature, notebooks Miscellaneous: Cameras, medicine boxes, cash (₹21,071 total) from the possession of them (Detailed seizure articles from the individual accused persons are mentioned separately in seizure panchanama). All accused and seized materials were brought to the police station. Confessions were recorded in the presence of mediators. Hence, the complainant requested to take necessary action against them.
